Dedication

With much gratitude and deep respect, we the Seniors of 1959 dedicate this volume of Cle-Tracks to MRS. HELEN ASKEW GULLEY whose cooperative spirit, personal interest in us, and long, dedicated service in the field of education have endeared her to our hearts. We shall be eternally grateful for having had her as teacher and friend.

Many problems and much happiness occur as we progress from the first grade through the twelfth. It is through the wise guidance of the administration that we are able to overcome our problems, and it is because of their deep understanding and genuine interest that we are able to share with them our happiness.

The Senior Year is the result of twelve rewarding years of progress in our educational journey. During this phase of the school career we look back and remember, fondly, rather shaky footsteps of early years and look forward, hopefully, with feet more firmly planted, to a future of continuous progress.

JANICE AUSTIN BLALOCK
"Great thoughts come from the heart."

CHARLES EARL BUFFKIN
"Work fascinates him. He can sit and look at it for hours."

BILLY WORTH CARROLL
"To worry little, to study less, is his idea of happiness."

BETTY DORCAS COOKE
"A smile for all, a greeting glad; a sweet and friendly way she has."

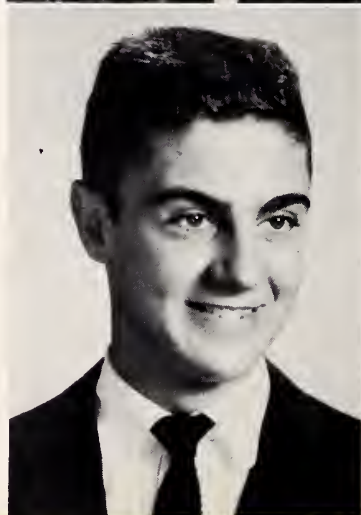

JOHN OWEN COOKE
"He takes life as it comes and enjoys it."

JANICE FAYE DUPREE
"From this little spark will burst a mighty flame."

THOMAS LARRY DUPREE
"All things come to him who waits. He's waiting!"

BRENDA FAYE ENNIS
"She's always ready to do what there is to be done."

BOBBY RAY ETHERIDGE
"He struggles on with the will to win but takes defeat with a cheerful grin."

HILDA FAYE GARNER
"A sense of humor and the power to laugh."

EUGENE THOMAS HARGIS
"Always happy, never sad, sometimes naughty, never bad."

JAMES PAUL HATCHER
"He never lets studying interfere with his education."

MALISSIE DORCAS (Susie) HAWKES
"Quiet and serious, but always there to do her share."

JANICE FAYE HONEYCUTT
"A good heart is worth all the heads in the world."

AMOS CEPHAS JOHNSON
"He who has many friends is rich indeed."

BARBARA ANN JOHNSON
"She is like an April shower, full of fun and lots of laughter."

ALMA GERALDINE KING

"The rule of her life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure her business."

CAROLYN STEPHENSON LANGDON

"A lover of sports who fits their rules into everyday life."

ROSCOE HUTCHIN LANGDON

"Men of few words are the best men."

LINDA SUE MARCOM

"Friendly and full of pep. Friends must rush to keep in step."

BARBARA JEAN MATTHEWS
"With her character and personality, she'll be a success."

GLORIA FAYE MATTHEWS
"That load becomes light which is cheerfully borne."

MAVIS PEARL MCGEE
"Being quiet never got anyone in trouble."

BILLY RAY MCGEE
"Not too serious, not too gay."

LEAMON EUGENE MYERS
"He's not lazy, he's just dreaming."

JO ANN OGBURN
"Her friendliness and beauty account for her personality."

SANDRA FAITH OGBURN
"She's always full of fun and joy, a favorite with any girl or boy."

WALTON REXFORD PHILLIPS
"He's not afraid of work but not in sympathy with it."

BILLY WILSON RAYNOR
"A contented, easy going fellow."

GEORGE WALL ROBERSON
"He's true to the world, his work, and friends."

BETTY LOU SORRELL
"Good natured and graceful, builder of many dreams."

BOBBY SHERRILL STEPHENSON
"His joys are as deep as the ocean; his troubles, as light as the foam."

DELORES CLIFTON
STEPHENSON
"Laughing, full of fun, the work she does is well done."

PEGGY LOU STEPHENSON
"Anything worth doing is worth doing right."

THOMAS WILLIAM UTLEY
"Thinks little, talks much."

Marshals Of 1958

Geraldine King, George Roberson, Brenda Ennis, Bobby Stephenson, Susie Hawkes.

Class History

In the fall of 1955 we entered Cleveland High School with an enrollment of 56 bewildered freshmen. Amongst all the confusion, we heard the loud shouts of our new principal, Mr. Walker, and then we knew exactly where we belonged.

Several members of our class were among the first to take part in the F.H.A. and Monogram Clubs, which were organized that year. We also had many who participated in F.H.A., 4-H, and Glee Clubs.

We welcomed Mr. Bruce Coats, our new coach, to Cleveland High and had several classmates who took part in sports. Sue Marcom, Carolyn Stephenson, Brenda Ennis, and Hilda Garner made the basketball team. Billy Raynor and Bobby Etheridge began their first year of sports in baseball, and Betty Cooke was on the cheering squad.

On a sultry, September day in 1956, we found ourselves a more settled bunch of sophs, but we still held our everlasting good humor.

New additions to the basketball team were: Barbara Johnson, Delores Cliton, Mavis McGee, and Betty Lou Sorrell. Billy Carroll, George Roberson, Bobby Stephenson, and Billy McGee were on the baseball team.

That year we welcomed Peggy Stephenson as a new member of our class.

Betty Lou Sorrell won the Home Economics medal for her outstanding achievements.

Those chosen as marshals were Brenda Ennis and Geraldine King.

All of a sudden we found ourselves juniors, looking forward to the many events which lay ahead.

Faye Matthews, Bobby Etheridge, George Roberson, and Jimmy Hatcher were placed on the basketball team, and Peggy Stephenson was a new addition to the cheering squad.

We welcomed Leamon Myers into our class that year.

Our junior play, "If Mother Only Knew," proved to be a success under the able direction of Mrs. Louise Boyette and Mrs. Helen Gulley.

Cotton candy, animals and merry-go-rounds bring back memories of our Junior-Senior Banquet in which we carried out the circus theme.

Jo Ann Ogburn, Geraldine King, George Roberson, and Brenda Ennis received awards for their outstanding achievements that year.

The marshals were Brenda Ennis (Chief), Geraldine King, George Roberson, Susie Hawkes, and Bobby Stephenson.

On class night we presented the seniors with wishing wands and bade them farewell.

SENIORS AT LAST! We had finally reached that long anticipated year. Adding to the delight of being seniors we learned that Mrs. Brooks was our homeroom teacher.

We shall never forget that democratic feeling as we elected our officers, superlatives, mascots, and annual staff.

"Sell! Sell! Sell!" was our motto as our magazine and candy campaigns got underway.

What lies ahead? Whatever it may be, we shall always treasure in our hearts fond memories of our school days at Cleveland High School. The crowded halls and long lunch lines are far behind as we, the class of 1959, bid farewell to "Dear Old Cleveland."

Class Motto

"Life is progress; look forward to what you shall be rather than backward to what you have been."

Last Will and Testament

We, the graduating class of 1959, in the community of Cleveland, county of Johnston, and the state of North Carolina, being of sound (?) mind, do hereby make this last will and testament to bequeath all our worldly goods, scholastic inclinations, and good times.

GROUP BEQUESTS:

Article I

To the faculty, we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for their guidance and patience through the years.

Article II

To the Juniors, we leave our homeroom and our many money making projects.

Article III

To the Sophomores, we leave our ambition and our goals in life.

Article IV

To the Freshmen, we leave our love for Cleveland School and the many happy years we spent here.

INDIVIDUAL BEQUESTS:

Article I

- I, DELORES CLIFTON, leave my ability to laugh off anything and be carefree to Joan Langdon.
- I, BOBBY ETHERIDGE, bequeath to Ronnie Hargis my athletic prowess.
- I, FAYE MATTHEWS, will my ability to get to basketball games to Carol Thigpen.
- I, GEORGE ROBERSON, leave my love of an argument to Willard Dry and Doug Stephenson.
- I, SANDRA OGBURN, leave my effervescent personality to Betty Sue Johnson.
- I, BOBBY STEPHENSON, will my short stature to Shepherd Byrd.
- I, JO ANN OGBURN, leave my graceful walk to Kay Baker.
- I, HILDA GARNER, leave my endless chatter to Eloise Carroll and Hilda Byrd. I'm sure there's enough for both of them.
- I, BILLY CARROLL, leave nothing. I need it all myself.
- I, JANICE HONEYCUTT, will my neatness to Shelvia Stephenson.
- I, JANICE BLALOCK, bequeath my love for writing poetry to Jane Bridges.
- I, JOHN COOKE, leave my height to Dewey Sanders.
- I, BARBARA JOHNSON, leave my flaming red hair and my black socks to Faye Stephenson.
- I, CAROLYN STEPHENSON, bequeath my ability to play basketball to Jo Ann Ogburn and Carolyn Messer.
- I, BETTY LOU SORRELL, will to Johnnie Coats the hard job of being class treasurer.
- I, JIMMY HATCHER, bequeath my good study habits to Jimmy Stephenson.
- I, SUSIE HAWKES, leave my blonde hair and blue eyes to Clara Faye Langdon with the hope that they benefit her as they have me.
- I, BILLY McGEE, leave my ability to bluff to Bennie Roberts and Reece Byrd.
- I, SUE MARCOM, will to Jean West my speedy way of talking.
- I, REXFORD PHILLIPS, leave to Phil King my appreciation of corny jokes.
- I, BETTY COOK, leave my position on the cheering squad to Carolyn Parrish.
- I, LARRY DUPREE, will to Larry Lane and Glenn Gardner my shorthand book in hope that they will cherish it as I do.
- I, GEARALDINE KING, leave my ability to pass each grade with honors to Joy Clifton.
- I, CHARLES BUFFKIN, will my neat appearance to Alfred Taylor.
- I, JANICE DUPREE, bequeath to Shirley Price my quiet disposition.
- I, ROSCOE LANGDON, leave Donald Beasley my ability to get along with the teachers.
- I, JEAN MATTHEWS, leave my dimples and knack for going steady to Sherrill Johnson.
- I, THOMAS UTLEY, bequeath to Lanny Stephenson my rank as star pupil of Mrs. Brooks.
- I, PEGGY STEPHENSON, will my vocal talent to Patricia Braswell.
- I, LEAMON MYERS, leave my school bus to Brother Ronnie.
- I, BRENDA ENNIS, bequeath my intellectual ability to Mary Lou Johnson, as if she needs it!
- I, GENE HARGIS, will my friendly manner to Mack Pollard.
- I, MAVIS McGEE, leave my long hair to Barbara Pleasant.
- I, AMOS JOHNSON, will my typing speed to Bradford Barbour.
- I, BILLY RAYNOR, leave my curls to Sue Johnson.

We do hereby set our seal on this last will and testament on this, the fifth day of June, nineteen hundred and fifty-nine.
